DETAILED ACTION

Request for Continuing Examination (RCE)

1. The RCE filed January 15, 2007 is accepted and entered and an examination is provided below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kirkwood US 3,711,062.

Kirkwood discloses a body 12; and two sealing elements 32 mounted oppositely and in mutual contact; wherein the sealing elements are interchangeable, hollow in their entire construction circumference and produced of elastomer; and wherein each one of the sealing elements includes a pneumatic circumferential watertight chamber entirely filled with air. The sealing elements have a convex contour (Figs. 6-7) and provides an increment in a resultant of forces that act in a axial flow direction.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3753

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over by Kirkwood US 3,711,062 in view of Williams et al. US 3,333,816.

Kirkwood lacks a metallic core in a form of a "T". Williams discloses a metallic core in a form of a "T". It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the metallic core in the form a "T" in the seal of Kirkwood in order to reinforce the seal as taught by Williams.

6. Claim 12 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over by Kirkwood US 3,711,062 in view of Fortune US 3,367,625.

Clarkson lacks sliding rings that are installed in ring-like cavities in the housing of the block body. Fortune discloses plastic sliding rings 24 are installed in ring-like cavities in the housing of the block body. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the plastic sliding rings of Fortune in the block body of Kirkwood in order to effect a positive seal (col. 4, lines 61-75).

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claim 13 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 8-13 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
